

Bermuda boosts investor protection under new licensing proposals

Draft legislation has been drawn up in Bermuda intended to improve the quality of the island's financial service providers and raise the level of protection for investors.

September 14 (Investors Offshore): According to the lega