

European pension funds face investment dilemma

According to a new report from Greenwich Associates, continental Europe's pension funds and other institutional investors face a real investment dilemma.

October 10 (HedgeWeek): The big dilemma is: How can they improve returns i