

1500 market participants agree to new practices for credit derivatives trading

Almost 1500 market participants have agreed to abide by new market practices for trading credit derivatives. According to ISDA this sets a new record for this kind of voluntary industrywide initiative.

November 25 (Financial Tim