

EFAMA calls for EU rules to improve market

According to the European fund industry association, legislation is needed if the EU is serious about creating a single market in asset management for investors.

November 23 (Reuters): According to EFAMA, the European fund i