

Europe's fund managers challenged by large cash inflows

The possible influence of large cash inflows upon management style is becoming a concern in the European fund industry.

April 18 (IFI Global Online): Huge inflows of cash into the European funds sector are beginning to worry the