

SEB to launch new Norwegian managed equity long/short hedge fund

Last month, SEB was granted permission to conduct asset management business in Norway. One of the first initiatives planned is a new hedge fund, the details of which now have become known.

Last month, Swedish banking corporation