

European Central Bank calls for global pension fund supervision

The European Central Bank has called for global monitoring and supervision of the activities of institutional investors such as pension funds.

August 30 (IPE.com): The European Central Bank has called for global monitoring and s