

Finnish asset manager FIM continues its strong growth trend

The Finnish asset management group continues to show growth in the first half of 2006 despite the sharp correction in the equity markets during May and June.

The Finnish asset management and investment banking group FIM continue