

New Cayman legal initiatives to have minimal impact upon Nordic Cayman registered funds

Last month, The Cayman Island FSA announced that it is looking to implement new electronic reporting requirements for hedge funds domiciled there in order to keep better track of the movements of the industry. The move is deemed to have minimal