

Swedish pension fund head eyes 25% in alternatives

Gustav Karner, the head of asset allocation at Sweden's Lansforsäkringar pension fund, plans to increase the fund's exposure to alternatives to 25%. However, hedge funds are a source of concern to Karner due to their fee structure, prompting him