

Hedge funds saw popularity rise among Danish investors during September

As interest in financial investment continues to rise among Danes, more try their hand at hedge fund investing. Total assets among Danish investment funds of all types rose to 806 billion DKK during the month of September.