

Survey: Nordic institutional investors to cut bonds and equity for alternatives

According to the new version of the annual investor survey performed by Danish financial consultant Kirstein Finans, institutional investors in the Nordic region are planning to move more assets into alternative investments, including pr