

Norges Bank chief criticises “disguised beta” hedge funds; searches for fixed income variants

Knut Kjær, executive director of Norges Bank Investment Management, which manages the Norwegian state pension fund, has said that many hedge funds are overpriced beta suppliers. At the same time, the institution is currently looking for suitable