

2007 may be "acquisition year" in the Swedish financial industry

According to those observing the Swedish market, a virtual acquisition boom may occur in 2007, with activist hedge funds and private equity funds as central players.

2006 was a year which saw several high profile buy-up moves in