

Catella Asset Management sees multiple hirings

In an effort to further strengthen company organisation, the Swedish fund management company Catella Asset Management has added several people to its team of employees.

Olof Neiglick has been recruited for the position as head o