

The Nordic Hedge Fund Index (NHX) preliminary est. up 1.37% in November, 77% of funds reporting; best performance since March 2006

November saw the world's hedge funds turning in positive performances once again. While the Nordic funds according to preliminary calculations performed the highest since March during the month, they still trail their international counterparts.