

AP2 CEO calls for Swedish companies to elude activist hedge funds

Eva Halvarsson, the CEO of Swedish government pension fund AP2, has urged exchange listed companies to divest themselves of excess assets in order to prevent moves by activist funds.

The major exchange listed companies in Swede