

Avanza: Hedge funds saw significant trading in 2006 following mixed investor sentiment

While stock and fund share trading set new records in Sweden during 2006, hedge funds were placed both on the buy and sell side as many investors became dissatisfied with the funds' performance during the May correction and consequently sold off