

Distressed investing to rise in 2007

According to several industry insiders, investing in distressed companies will become a major focus of hedge funds in 2007.

January 3 (Financial News): Investing in distressed companies will become even more attractive to hedge