

Mercer Investment Consulting to provide research to Danish institutional investment consultant

Mercer Investment Consulting has signed a co-operation agreement with Danish investment consulting firm Invensure to provide manager research and selection services to the Danish institutional investment market. This is seen as a respons