

Danish hedge funds - regulatory issues for the funds and their future investors

At present only four hedge funds are registered in Denmark. However, in the light of recent indications that several more are in the pipeline, this article looks at some of the regulatory issues they will face, and also takes a look at the