

Swedish government pension fund AP7 halves hedge fund exposure following “pure alpha” implementation

After starting up an alpha/beta separation investment programme, AP7, the Swedish government pension fund, is going to reduce its hedge fund allocation by half.

Following the successful introduction of a “pure alpha” investment