

Swedish banks lose out to smaller fund firms

Fund products offered by the big Swedish banks, are increasingly being abandoned by investors in favour of funds offered by small independent companies. Now, Swedbank attempts to offer a larger selection of internal funds in order to attract mor