

Swedish FSA plans to revoke hedge fund operating permit over capital depletion

The Swedish equity hedge fund C&M Fund Nordic Equities is on the verge of closure as the FSA has threatened to revoke the fund management company's operating license, as the fund capital is too low according to regulatory standards. Accordin