

Demand for onshore hedge funds intensifying in Norway

The demand within the Norwegian financial community for the implementation of onshore hedge fund legislation is growing. Professionals find it “paradoxical” that funds have to be established offshore.

The story of hedge fu