

UK: Hedge funds opened up for private investors

According to Financial Times private investors in UK are finally to be allowed access to hedge funds through UK retail products, under changes to the regulatory regime proposed by the Treasury and the Financial Services Authority.