

Iceland's PM attempts to calm investor concerns

March 3rd (Financial Times): Iceland's Prime Minister, Geir Haarde, is attempting to calm the concerns of international investors, who are worried about the country's economy.

According to Geir Haarde, the leading banks in