

UK pension funds increase hedge fund allocations

March 5th (Reuters): A new survey by consulting firm Watson Wyatt showed that pension funds are increasing their allocations to hedge funds and other alternative assets in an attempt to diversify investments.

According to Watson