

Agricultural suppliers profit from rising food prices

Equity markets in Europe rose to highest levels in more than ten weeks the FT reported yesterday. Agricultural suppliers profited heavily from the surging food prices.

Rising food prices pushed the Norwegian fertiliser group Yar