

Iceland settles EUR1.5bn currency swap scheme with Scandinavian neighbours

The central bank of Iceland has agreed to sign a EUR1.5bn currency swap deal with Sweden, Norway and Denmark, the FT reported. The central banks of each of the countries had given the right to acquire EUR500m against the krona. It was a precaution to