

AIMA announces new global council

The Alternative Investment Management Association (AIMA) – the leading global representative association for the hedge fund industry – announced its new Council at its Annual General Meeting in London yesterday.

AIMA's membership has elected th