

Nordic economies: From tigers to lambs

The Nordic economies have shown impressive growth rates for several years. But according to the latest economic outlook from Nordea the upswing now seems to have ground to a final halt - although the downturn in this region will probably be relatively c