

Sweden's AP2 targets companies over lack of women executives

According to Responsible Investor AP2, the SEK227.5bn (€23bn) Second Swedish National Pension Fund, has launched a campaign to lobby companies which it believes are under representing women within their management and boards.

The fund has condu