

2008 status of the Danish investment funds

The financial crisis did indeed strike the equity market in 2008. New figures from The federation of Danish investment associations shows compared to the figures from Hedgenordic that hedge funds did a lot better in 2008 than investment funds.