

Fund managers find positives in Japan

The Hedge Fund Journal: Managers of funds investing in Japan are finding a number of positives about the country despite an economic backdrop most see as challenging, according to an update on the sector from Standard & Poor's Fund