

Avenir continues to believe the US economy faces structural headwinds

- We have returned to a cautious stance on the markets and the economy. At the end of the month our net position was 10% short the equity markets. We remain short mid-cap stocks versus large-caps. In March our outright trading strategy generated a profit