

Shepherd: March started on high footing

In February, the short end of the curve rallied on high spot prices due to a severe cold over Scandinavia, low water reservoir levels and the Swedish nuclear power production still facing