

ISLA: Harmonise short selling regulation

The International Securities Lending Association is urging consistent and proportionate regulation for short selling, in response to a current European Commission consultation exercise.

The European Commission is cons