

IPM: Greece played a major part in June

- June was yet another month where the situation in Greece played a major part. On fears of a government crisis and the inability to secure votes to pass the package, global equity markets