

Freedom: Long shadow over risky assets

- The month of July ended in a positive territory as there were profitable trends especially in the fixed income and currency segments. The main topics of the month were the debt crisis in