

Hedge Funds World Zurich

(Annon) – As a global leader in the hedge fund seeding field, IMQubator's Jeroen Tielman has a deep breadth of knowledge in obtaining the best value from investing in early stage hedge funds. Jeroen will speak at the forthcoming Hedge Funds World Zurich, and will outline:

- How the investors / manager relationship changes with hedge fund seeding
  - How non-specialist investors can take advantage of the benefits seeding provides
  - What limitations there are for hedge fund seeding, and how this may effect potential investments
- If you want to understand exactly how investing in early stage funds can benefit you, as well as learn about the advances made in portfolio construction, then you need to be at the Hedge Funds World Zurich 2012.
