

Nordic Hedge Index up in May

Stockholm (HedgeNordic.com) - Nordic hedge funds gained an estimated 1.17% in May bringing the NHX Composite to a year-to-date performance of 2.40%.

The month saw strong returns across all NHX sub-strategies. Managed Futures was the best performing strategy rebounding strongly after a period of weak numbers. Equity funds continued to do well on the back of a strong rally in global stock markets.
