

NHX with slight gains in September - CTAs to the rescue!

Stockholm (HedgeNordic.com) - Nordic hedge funds gained an estimated 0.2% in September bringing the NHX Composite to a year-to-date performance of 3.1%.

CTA/Managed Futures continued to perform strongly and was by far the best performing strategy on the month. Following two consecutive months of extraordinary gains, Managed Futures is now in solid positive territory for the year. Equity strategies was the only sub-strategy posting losses for the month. For the entire report, please click here: NHX September 2014

Bild: (c) cphoto—Fotolia.com