

Merrant nominated for InvestHedge Awards

Stockholm (HedgeNordic) - For the second year running, Merrant Alpha Select, the market-neutral fund of hedge funds managed by Merrant Fonder, has been nominated for the InvestHedge Awards.

Merrant is nominated in the category best risk adjusted return over 1 and 5 years for a multi-strategy fund. Over 250 leading players in the global multi-manager hedge fund industry will come together in London to celebrate the achievements of the best in the industry on September 30.

In a comment, Merrant's portfolio managers Rolf Hagekrans and Ulf Sedig say:

"We are very proud to see that our investment strategy, once again, has been recognised internationally. This is the 20th time the fund is nominated as a result of its strong risk adjusted return.
