

Marcus Ehrenpreis new head of sales at PriorNilsson

Stockholm (HedgeNordic) - PriorNilsson has recruited Marcus Ehrenpreis as new head of sales according to a press release. Ehrenpreis was previously CEO of Fondmarknaden.se and has already started his new role at PriorNilsson.

In a comment, PriorNilsson's co-founder Torgny Prior says: "PO Nilsson and I have worked together for a long time and we are truly passionate about what we do. As a small fund management company we earn the trust of our clients through generating good returns. In our ongoing work of developing PriorNilsson as a company we are very happy to now have Marcus onboard."

The Swedish asset manager PriorNilsson has two hedge funds in its program, PN Yield running a fixed income strategy and PN Idea, a concentrated L/S equity fund. Realinvest, another fund in the alternative space, is an equity fund allocating to companies with a large share of real assets, such as companies in the real estate, forestry, raw material or power industries.
