

Folksam adds fixed income funds to guided offering

Stockholm (HedgeNordic) - The Swedish insurance company Folksam adds two fixed income funds to its guided fund offering according to a press release. The new funds are Jupiter Global Dynamic Bond Fund and Neuberger Berman Emerging Market Debt Blend Fund.

In a comment, Susanne Bolin Gärtner, responsible for the Folksam fund platform, says: "We are continuously looking to add value to our clients through scanning the market for the best funds and fund managers to be included in our guided fund offering. The two new funds will complement our current offering and will add to flexibility and control in a challenging interest rate environment.

Following the latest two additions, Folksam now has 65 funds to choose from on its platform.

Picture: (c) Folksam