

Strong month for Nordic hedge funds

Stockholm (HedgeNordic) - Nordic hedge funds gained an estimated 1.8 % in November. Year-to-date, the Nordic Hedge Index Composite Index (NHX) is in positive territory by +5.1 %.

Managed Futures and equity strategies were the best performers during the month. In the case of Managed Futures, funds benefited from strong underlying trends in currency and commodity markets and thereby recovered losses from the previous month. Equity hedge funds have had a strong 2015 with gains now exceeding 9 % for the full year, by far the best performing NHX sub-strategy.
