

Amsterdam Investor Forum 2016

Promotion: ABN AMRO Clearing welcomes you to the 5th annual Amsterdam Investor Forum which will be held on Wednesday the 17th of February 2016. The AIF has established itself as a leading forum and meeting place for Institutional Investors and Alternative Investment Managers.

The forum will focus on a range of topics including regulation, investor allocation, market trends whilst debating the present financial landscape. The agenda will reflect the opportunities and challenges of the alternative industry in the current market environment.

The conference also provides an excellent opportunity to network with peers and market participants as we gather a rich diversity of international alternative investors and managers.

AIF Factor

During the day of the forum on 17th of February, we will host the AIF Factor, which gives the floor to 5 fund managers for a 3-minute pitch to present their fund's strategy. The 200+ audience, including a panel jury will vote for the most compelling and attractive strategy.

Fund Managers Seminar

Additionally on Tuesday the 16th of February in the afternoon, we will be hosting a seminar for fund managers. This will provide a unique opportunity to access a diversified group of up and coming managers. We will focus on how Fund Managers can "boost their fund's profile" with presentations from industry experts as well as interview with allocators in emerging managers.
