

Atlant in tripple fund launch

Stockholm (HedgeNordic) - Atlant Fonder are launching three new funds to be added to their current offering of 6 funds. The new funds are called Atlant Protect, Atlant Opportunity and Atlant Multi-Strategy Internal.

The Atlant Protect fund is described as combining derivatives on the OMX S30 index with fixed income investments with the goal to significantly outperform the risk free rate over time. The fund charges a management fee of 1 percent and no performance fee. Minimum investment is set to 50.000 SEK.

The Atlant Opportunity fund is described as combining equity, fixed income and credit derivatives positions with fixed income investments on the Nordic market. Management fee is set to 1 percent and the fund also charges a performance fee of 20 percent. Minimum investment is set to 50.000 SEK.

The Atlant Multi-Strategy Internal invests into other funds managed by Atlant and charges a management fee of 0.2 percent (on top of fees charged in underlying funds) with no performance fees. Minimum investment is set to 50.000 SEK.

The funds started trading in January and Multi-Strategy got off to a difficult start (-2.92 %) suffering from losses in other Atlant funds. Protect and Opportunity were little changed.
