

Nordic CTAs nominated for European Performance Awards

Stockholm (HedgeNordic) - A number of Nordic CTAs have been shortlisted for the CTA Intelligence European Performance Award, to be held in London on November 30.

Among the names are well established players such as Lynx and SEB Asset Selection as well as some newcomers including Brummer & Partners Florin Court and SEB Diversified. All nominees are Swedish or Sweden-linked.

CTA giant Lynx shows up in four categories;

- CTA long term performance over $500m (5 years)
- Diversified CTA over $500m
- Risk-adjusted return over $500m
- Trend-follower over $500m.

SEB Asset Selection is nominated in five categories;

- CTA long term performance over $500m (5 years)
- Diversified CTA over $500m
- Managed futures Ucits fund
- Risk-adjusted return over $500m
- Trend-follower over $500m.

IPM Informed Portfolio Management are nominated in the Systematic Macro category with its Systematic Macro Fund while RPM, Risk & Portfolio Management are represented in the Multi manager fund category with the RPM Evolving CTA Fund.

In the newcomer category, Brummer's Florin Court and SEB Investment Mangement's SEB Diversified holds representation.

For the full list of nominees, click here

Picture: (c) Elnur - shutterstock.com